DEPUTY CLERK

Hi,

8-8-21

Not sure who to address really;

Dear Your Honor or Mr. Welsh,

As you know I'm incarcerated at SCI-Dallas in Dallas, PA. I was hoping to get an adjournment on the September 8, 20, 29, deadlines for case No. 4:21-cv-00122. The reason why is because the attorney I thought was going to represent me seems to have fallen off the face of the earth. All I've been told by his assistant is he's busy, out of the office, or he's still waiting on medical records. He wasn't officially on my case but I don't understand for the life of me why he would string me along for six months. Anyway I need as much time as possible because I'm going to have to represent myself and I have no idea what a discovery even is, let alone anything else. Please take into consideration my request and reason for it. Thank you. Anything you send me could you also send to my son Eric Murray please. I'm sure you have a copy of the P.O.A, he's the one who originally filed for me. That will better my chances of receiving whatever you send.

P.S. If you are in fact getting these letters I'm sorry about bombarding you with them. But I've had a lot of mail go missing.

Sincerely,
Robert Murray
